

Dear Friend of the AWC,

The Allendale Woman's Club is proud to announce that the Hope Residence at Eva's Village will be the primary beneficiary of our 2018 Fashion Show: Design for Recovery, on Tuesday, April 24, 2018!

The Hope Residence helps mothers with children who are struggling with homelessness, hunger and addiction who need far more than just temporary shelter. Eva's provides a wide range of supportive services to address their mental and physical health. The mothers may need substance use disorder treatment, psychological counseling, domestic violence support, childcare, and assistance with job training and job placement. Their children are provided a secure environment that helps soothe the chaos of being homeless and not knowing where the next meal will come from. While their mothers work toward recovery and stability, the children are nurtured with stimulating recreational activities, art therapy sessions and educational support.

Since this year is the 100th anniversary of Allendale women coming together to be of service to the community, we will be honoring Lani Bonifacic and Gail Cole with our "100 Years of Women Helping Others Award". These former AWC members are the co-founders of Hope and Healing After Addiction, a bereavement and support group created in response to the devastating heroin and opioid epidemic affecting so many families.

Please support our fundraising efforts by advertising in the event program, which will be widely circulated and received by every attendee. In addition to the goodwill you and your organization will generate through your support, you will also have the focused attention of ~400 attendees who live and shop in one of the most affluent suburbs in the Metro NYC area. You may also choose to donate goods or services for our popular auction.

For further information about the Allendale Woman's Club please visit our website, allendalewomansclub.org. For information about Eva's Village visit www.evasvillage.org.

Thank you in advance for your generous support of our charitable endeavors. Together we can bring hope to those in recovery from addiction and provide a better tomorrow for mothers and their children in need!

Sincerely,

Marie Caliendo, Lynda Hedbavny, Christine Martin
